INTERNATIONAL WEBINARS IN NUCLEAR ENERGY

Thursday, March 13, 2025, at 15:30 (CET)

Introduction to design and performance of the AP1000[®] nuclear plant

This webinar, presented by Mrs. Julie Gorgemans, will cover the design philosophy and key objectives of the AP1000 nuclear plant design, with particular focus on the approach to nuclear safety along with the modular design and construction approach used by Westinghouse for AP1000 nuclear plant technology. This webinar will also discuss plant performance of the first wave of AP1000 nuclear plants in operation in China and the United States.

This webinar will have an estimated duration of 1 hour (40 minutes presentation and 20 minutes Q&A) and is conducted under the framework of the ENEN2+ Project.
